

ARTICLE REPRINTS

Annual Reviews provides authors with unlimited "e-prints."

YOU CAN ACCESS YOUR ARTICLE VIA THE FOLLOWING E-PRINT URL:

<http://arjournals.annualreviews.org/eprint/yyThexc9vmVNN4DkFjKC/full/10.1146/annurev-soc-070308-115954>

When colleagues request reprints, please "send" them this e-print URL, not the PDF file, for complimentary access to your review. NOTE: When you email the URL, line breaks may be inserted because this is such a long string. A URL can contain no blank spaces or line breaks. Recipients will need to delete any blank spaces or line breaks to make the URL a single long line again, then paste it into the "Location:" box of their Web browser.

When you send someone the URL, please include a note to this effect: "I am pleased to provide you complimentary one-time access to my Annual Reviews article as a PDF file ([Author: place e-print URL here]), for your own personal use. Any further/multiple distribution, publication, or commercial usage of this copyrighted material requires submission of a permission request addressed to the Annual Reviews Permissions Department, email permissions@AnnualReviews.org."

To provide interested readers with free access to your article, you may also post the above e-print URL on one personal and one institutional Web page. The final PDF file should not be posted.
